DEFENDANT'S AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Chick-fil-A states the following affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint below. This case is still in the very early stages of litigation; Chick-fil-A reserves the right to amend its Answer to assert additional affirmative defenses and pleas, including instances of inequitable conduct, consistent with the evidence and facts to be developed in this case:

First Affirmative Defense:

Chick-fil-A does not infringe and has not infringed any claim of U.S. Patent No. 6,585,516 (the "516 patent") under any theory, including directly (whether individually or jointly), indirectly (whether contributorily or by inducement), literally, or under the doctrine of equivalents.

Second Affirmative Defense:

The '516 patent is invalid because the alleged invention fails to satisfy the conditions for patentability specified in 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq., including §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

Third Affirmative Defense:

Upon information and belief, DietGoal lacks standing to sue, and/or to bring this action seeking to enforce the '516 patent.

Fourth Affirmative Defense:

The Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Fifth Affirmative Defense:

Upon information and belief, DietGoal's claims for damages for purported patent infringement are limited by 35 U.S.C. § 287.

Sixth Affirmative Defense:

To the extent DietGoal asserts Chick-fil-A indirectly infringes, either by contributory infringement or inducement of infringement, Chick-fil-A is not liable to DietGoal for the acts performed before Chick-fil-A allegedly knew its actions would cause direct infringement.

Seventh Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal's claims and its attempted enforcement of the '516 patent against Chick-fil-A are barred, in whole or in part, by laches, including but not necessarily limited to prosecution laches.

Eighth Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal's claims and its attempted enforcement of the '516 patent against Chick-fil-A are barred, in whole or in part, by estoppel, including but not necessarily limited to prosecution history estoppel.

Ninth Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal's claims and its attempted enforcement of the '516 patent against Chick-fil-A are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of unclean hands.

Tenth Affirmative Defense:

By virtue of the proceedings in the United States Patent & Trademark Office during the prosecution of the application that matured into the ‘516 patent, as illustrated by its prosecution history, DietGoal is estopped from asserting Chick-fil-A has infringed directly or indirectly, any claim of the ‘516 patent, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal’s patent infringement claims are barred, at least in part, by the time limitation on damages, 35 U.S.C. § 286.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal is barred by 35 U.S.C. § 288 from recovering costs associated with its action.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal’s purported claims for damages and other relief resulting from alleged infringement of claims of the ‘516 patent as a result of Chick-fil-A’s actions in conjunction with the actions of other parties, which Chick-fil-A specifically denies, are barred to the extent that those other parties are licensed to practice the claims of the ‘516 patent and/or are released from past claims of infringement of the claims of the ‘516 patent.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense:

DietGoal’s claims and its attempted enforcement of the ‘516 patent against Chick-fil-A are barred, in whole or in part, by waiver.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense:

Upon information and belief, DietGoal has failed to plead and meet the requirements of enhanced damages or attorney’s fees and costs.

Other Affirmative Defenses:

Chick-fil-A specifically pleads and incorporates by reference as an affirmative defense all additional applicable caps and limitations upon any award of damages, both compensatory and punitive, which are provided by law.

Incorporation of Co-Defendants' Pleas And Defenses

Defendant hereby incorporates by reference, to the extent applicable to Chick-fil-A, any affirmative defenses, denials or pleas raised by any other Defendant herein.

Reservation of Additional Affirmative Defenses

Chick-fil-A reserves any and all additional affirmative defenses permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the patent laws of the United States and/or at law or in equity, that may now exist or may exist in the future based on discovery and further investigation in this case.
